

BHEL organises Motorcycle Rally as part of Vigilance Awareness Week

Aimed at spreading the message of this year's Vigilance Awareness Week – 'Eradicate Corruption – Build a New India', a motorcycle rally was organised by BHEL. The rally was flagged off by Shri Atul Sobti, Chairman and Managing Director and Shri Alok Ranjan, IPS, Chief Vigilance Officer, Other senior officers of the company were also present on the occasion. A total of 50 motorcyclists participated in the rally that commenced from the company's Corporate Office at Siri Fort to its Township at Sector 17, Noida, covering a distance of approximately 20 kms. The motorcyclists along with pillion riders carried BHEL flags and several placards highlighting the message of the fight against corruption.